

Program Duration:

The M.Sc. program is a full time postgraduate graduate course with a duration of two years. The maximum time span in which a candidate must qualify for the degree shall be four academic years failing which he/she shall not be allowed to continue his/her studies for the program.

Minimum Credits:

University shall follow the choice based credit system. The total credit requirement for the award of the M. Sc Degree shall range between 75 and 85 credits depending upon the specified curriculum & scheme of examination of the specific M.Sc. program, and this includes all core courses. Successful completion of summer training, and successful completion of all stages of dissertation/project work shall be a prerequisite for becoming eligible for the award of the degree. In addition, a student shall have to fulfill all other conditions as prescribed by the University from time to time.

Lower and Upper Limits for Credits Registered:

A student has flexibility in terms of registering the credits during the semester. Due to any unavoidable circumstances, ill health or any other reason, if a student feels that he / she would not be able to take up the academic rigor, may register for a minimum of 12 credits to maintain his / her continuity in the program. The minimum credit registered should include at least two courses of L-T-P mode 4-0-0, which can be core or elective with preference to core. A student also has the choice to register for a maximum of 30 credits in a semester, if he / she wishes to complete the program either at a faster pace (provided he/she has a CGPA of more than 8.0) or needs to register for previous semester courses due to detention.

Credits Earned at Different Universities / Institutes:

Provision shall be made for acknowledgement of credits earned by a student through course-work/project work/internship at other institutions in India or abroad. This shall be facilitated with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor on the recommendation of the respective Dean.

Attendance:

A student shall be required to fulfill the attendance criteria as prescribed in the Ordinance.

